Bric-a-Brac and Beautiful China

FIRST show days for the ceramic and sculptured beauty we've brought to New York for Christmas times. We call the home of it an art room, and we try never to use the word "art" slightly.

The marble figures—mostly busts—are, as a rule, produced to our order in Florence, Italy. There are, of course, the usual classic pieces, but so few people are enthralled by hewed paths that we buy and sell vastly more of the pieces born of fancy's play. Now, marbles, like any other decorative thing, may be costly or inexpensive—and right in either case. Simplicity is the gauge of safety in buying the pieces at $5 and such easy prices. We have exercised the care—you can choose simply to suit your fancy.

The more important pieces run up to $125.

Bric-a-Brac, the name for the thousand and one things that the housewife loves and that careless folks count everlastingly in the way—"bric-a-brac" never stood for more of beauty. Royal Vienna seems to be the coming favorite (vases, $4 to $400), but Sevres almost holds its own. Think of the beauty of anything that can supplant it even partially. (Sevres pieces, $4 to $250.) Then Dresden, then Teplitz—the real, from Austria. The name is being as loosely used as the term "Brussels carpet." Flemish pottery is ruder, but possibly most clearly characteristic of all (75c to $12) and necessary in "period" furnishing. There are all sorts of shapes from candlestick to jug. A step to the Dutch, with its uses.

Do you know Louwels a Pottery? A rose by any other name would smell as sweet—think of Rookwood. Different bush, but as rose and rose with Rookwood. Pieces at $3 to $37.50.

But we started out to tell much of Cut Glass. Will you take that for granted to-day? Our stories must never be tiresomely long. China and Art Goods in the Basement.

THREE SHOE BARGAINS—Women's $3.50 Shoes, black kidskin, at $2.35.

Men's good shape calfskin shoes at $1.80, instead of $3.

Boys' black or tan shoes—13 to 2, at $1.25. 2½ to 5½, at $1.50.

More Fine Dress Goods Bargains

There are still about 1,000 yards of the $1.25 Black Chevots and Diagonals at 50c. We've told their story.

Of our own fine Black Fabrics we find an over-plus here and there—hence, these reductions on splendid fresh goods—

$2.50 from $3.50—French crepon-striped Granite Suiting.
$2.50 from $3.50—French Bedford Cord striped with chenille. Another at $2.25 from $3.25.
$2.50 from $3.50—French Granite Suiting with velvet-chenille polka dots.
Black Goods, Tenth st. and Fourth avenue.

Colored Dress Fabrics—
Almost the last of the—
$1 to $1.50 Bedford Cords at 37½c.
$1 Whipcords at 37½c.
$1.25 Whipcords at 50c.
$1 Melange Twills at 65c.

We told you how they came—importer had lots with some poor colorings. He would almost give away the poor ones. Instead, we bought the few less good with the many first-rate ones—and the saving is yours. Besides the bad ones are pretty good—you may like them best of all.

Suits for Lads of 14 to 19

Long-trouser suits. We don't know of many stores that pay any attention to clothing boys of 14 to 19—most merchants say the business doesn't pay: which isn't a fair position—for if you depend on a store to clothe the little boys and the men it's a mean trick to have the lads slighted in the five most particular years.

Somewhere in that period the good American boy catches the secret of correct, respectable, genteel dressing—catches it almost as unconsciously as one gets the knack of bicycle riding after hours of discouraging trying.

These long-trouser suits, $8.50 to $20. All are right and correct—we have need for several grades.

Stylish Capes for Women—Old and Young

It is a well-founded criticism of the average collection of wraps that the storekeeper must think all women are 18-year-old sylphs. It mustn't be so here—it is not.

Mature women are thanking us for capes like this—
Black melton, 30 inches long; richly but neatly embroidered in pleasing designs, and lined with good black satin. $35.

To be sure, such a garment could be gotten up to one's order, but here it is one of scores of fine styles all ready to wear.

Rather younger-looking, is this three-quarter length cape of rich black matelasse. There is a touch of edged passementerie on the upper part and liberal use of fine chenille fringe. Fronts are edged with feather trimming, and the garment is full satin lined. There is an indescribable swish of style about this cape—maybe because it sweeps from half length front to the three-quarter in the back. $50.

Here is a cape of black melton, 30 inches long; braided in graceful designs and the broad edged with daintiest touch of chenille. High storm collar edged with black trim; lined with a heavy-velvet black silk. $25.

Let's skip to these plainer tailored capes—
Black kersey; no trimming except the rows of prettily-done stitching; satin lined. $9. Same effect; but made of fancy-velvet black serge. $9.

Plenty for less—and more, up to $115.

And Golf Capes—but that's a class to itself.

Men's Shirts

We are proud of the skill of our custom shirt maker. Hundreds of New Yorkers are feeling so comfortable because of his work that they never think of him or their shirts—till they need a new supply. Our man will make them, depend on that. Perfect comfort is forgetfulness of parts—whether of body or clothes.

Sometimes he makes one shirt as a trial. Then comes a letter like this—

"I acknowledge receipt of sample shirt on order for half dozen. Please to report a perfect fit. Kindly have the other five finished up and sent to me."

In a spare day (he won't have spare days when you know his work better), he got up some Paris-like shirts—box-plaited bosom of exquisitely fine linen. We shall sell them at exactly the lot holds out.
